

EBacc Pathway

What is Science?

Science involves the study of living things, the chemicals which make up everything and the physical processes which act upon us. Science allows us to ask questions and investigate how our universe and everything within it works. Science is a challenging learning process, which is fundamental to our understanding and innovation.

GCSE, Chemistry